Allowable Subject Matter

- ❖ Claim(s) 1, 6-17, 20, 22-23, 25-26 and 28-30, are allowed:

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Interpreting the claims in light of the specification, under the broadest reasonable interpretation of the claimed limitation which is consistent with the Applicant's Specification. In particular, the claimed invention advantageously provides a finer level of detail that using the interlanguage DTD to transfer the data of the first schema into the second schema; wherein the transfer mechanism includes a superordination mechanism and a composition mechanism; and wherein within the superordination mechanism there are the submechanisms of hyponymy, hyperonymy, co-hyperonymy, antonymy and series (see claims 1, 17 and 28); also the claimed invention advantageously provides a finer level of detail that automatically reading the structure and semantic ontology immanent in the source data by interpreting the DTDs; including applying a plurality of filters including a delicacy filter, a synonymy filter, a contiguity filter and a subset filter (see claim 12); also the claimed invention advantageously provides a finer level of detail that translating a first schema of data having one structure or semantics into a second schema of data having a second structure or semantics by utilizing a thesaurus and dictionary provided in combination with taxonomy definition in which the dictionary unpacks the meaning by means of paraphrase and exemplars and the thesaurus display wordings through which meanings can be aptly expressed; wherein the dictionary is constructed using five semantic rules: minimized ambiguity; functional clarity; lowest common denominator semantics; a distinction of silent from active tag-concepts; and comprehensive internal cross-reference (see claim 23) [see claim(s) 1,12,17, 23 and 28 of the After final Amendments filed 10/04/2010 and the Specification @ Page 17 line 1 through page 18 line 18 and illustrates in Fig. 4 .]

The Examiner asserts that the claims overcome the prior art of record as describes above when the limitations are read in combination with the respective claimed limitations in their entirety.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
